

My Tax Checklist

If you enrolled in a health plan through the Health Insurance Marketplace®, you'll get Form 1095-A in the mail from the Marketplace by early February. You'll use it when you file your taxes, so store it in a safe place and bring it to your tax appointment along with your W-2s and other tax records. Here's what else you may need when you file:

Information for each household member

- Last year's tax return
- Social Security Number (SSN)
- Date of birth
- Child care records, including the provider's ID number
- Alimony that was paid (for divorces and separations finalized before January 1, 2019), and the ex-spouse's SSN

Income & tax information for the tax year

- Form 1095-A from the Marketplace
- W-2 forms from all employers
- 1099 forms showing interest, refunds, credits, or other payments
- Information about any self-employment income
- Receipts for your small business
- Receipts from rental, real estate, royalties, partnerships, S corporation, and trusts
- Unemployment compensation
- Social Security benefits

Deductions, adjustments, & tax credits for the tax year

- 1098 forms or other mortgage statements
- Expenses, like self-employment, education, child care, adoption, and medical
- Real estate and personal property taxes
- IRA contributions, or other retirement saving contributions
- Employee business expenses
