

Background: The Health Insurance Marketplace® sends IRS Form 1095-A to each tax filer (as defined under 45 CFR 155.300), or responsible adult on a policy, by January 31 each year. The 1095-A is sent to each tax filer or responsible adult in a household that enrolled in a Marketplace plan (also known as a qualified health plan) for any months in the coverage year, with or without advance payments of the premium tax credit (APTC). The Form 1095-A lists:

- Household members enrolled in the Marketplace plan
- The plan premium
- Any APTC paid on the member's behalf to the issuer.

The following sample is a cover letter to accompany the corrected Form 1095-A.

Application ID: XXXXXXXXXX

Plan Name: [Plan name]

You must file a tax return if your IRS Form 1095-A shows that you got advance payments of the premium tax credit. See Part III, Column C on your form.

Use Form 1095-A to complete IRS Form 8962 "Premium Tax Credit (PTC)" and include it with your federal income tax return when you file (if you haven't already done so).

[Name 1 Tax filer]:

Enclosed is your corrected tax Form 1095-A about your Health Insurance Marketplace® coverage. You'll need information from this form when you file your [coverage year] federal income tax return. The correction may be the result of an error that you or your health insurance company reported on your original Form 1095-A.

This corrected Form 1095-A replaces your original Form 1095-A. Disregard all earlier versions of Form 1095-A for Marketplace assigned policy number [XXXXX] (see Box 2 of this form). This notice doesn't apply to a Form 1095-A with a different Marketplace-assigned policy number if you have one.

You may get more than one Form 1095-A

This notice applies only to Form 1095-A for Marketplace-assigned policy number [XXXXXX]. You may get more than one Form 1095-A if different members of your household had different health plans, or you updated your application information or switched plans during [coverage year]. Keep all 1095-A forms for your records.

You must file a tax return

You must file a federal income tax return if you or another member of your household got advance payments of the premium tax credit in [coverage year] to lower premium costs, even if you don't normally file a return. If you don't file a tax return, you won't qualify for advance payments of the premium tax credit or cost-sharing reductions to help pay for your Marketplace coverage in future years.

Complete IRS Form 8962 and include it when you file your taxes. You'll use information on this corrected Form 1095-A to complete Form 8962. The Form 1095-A also states which months of [coverage year] you and other household members had coverage. You'll need that information to complete IRS Form 8962. Get more details on the back of the enclosed form. If you need Form 8962, visit IRS.gov/aca.

Changes to your Form 1095-A information

If you think information on the enclosed corrected Form 1095-A is wrong, call the Marketplace Call Center at 1-800-318-2596 to find out how to get a new corrected Form 1095-A. TTY users can call 1-855-889-4325.

Why Form 1095-A is important

Form 1095-A includes information about:

- You and any members of your household who were enrolled in a Marketplace plan in [coverage year].
- Your Marketplace plan premium and other information you may need to fill out your federal income tax return.
- The amount of any advance payments of the premium tax credit we paid in [coverage year] to a health plan for your household.

To learn more about the information on your form, visit HealthCare.gov/tax-form-1095.

You may need more information to complete your tax return

When you file your [coverage year] taxes, you'll need more information about your premium tax credit if:

- You had changes in your household that you didn't report to the Marketplace – like having a baby, moving, getting married or divorced, or losing a dependent.
- Your corrected Form 1095-A has zeroes printed in Part III, Column B for the months you had coverage.

Visit HealthCare.gov/tax-tool to get the information you need if either of these apply to you.

Will I need to file an amended return?

You may need to file an amended return if you already filed your federal tax return for [coverage year] and at least one of the following is true:

- You used information from a previous Form 1095-A with the policy number shown above.
- Your corrected Form 1095-A has zeroes printed in Part III, Column B for the months you had coverage.

Visit IRS.gov and enter the keywords "amended return" in the search bar for more information on when to file an amended return.

You also may get IRS Form 1095-B or IRS Form 1095-C

If you or members of your household had coverage in [coverage year] through other programs or plans outside the Marketplace, you may also get a "Form 1095-B, Health Coverage" or “Form 1095-C, Employer-Provided Health Insurance Offer and Coverage.” Follow the instructions on these forms when you fill out your tax return.

The monthly enrollment premium listed on your Form 1095-A (Part III, Column A) may be different from your plan’s full monthly premium amount

This doesn’t always mean there are errors that need to be corrected. The monthly premium on your Form 1095-A may be different from what you expect because:

- Your plan included more than the essential health benefits required by the health care law, like adult dental or vision benefits. In this case, the monthly enrollment premium on your Form 1095-A may show only the amount of your premium that applied to essential health benefits.
- You or a household member started or ended coverage mid-month. Your Form 1095-A only shows the premium for the parts of the month coverage was provided.
- You had a stand-alone dental plan and a dependent under 18 was enrolled in it. In this case, the monthly enrollment premium on your Form 1095-A may be higher than you expect because it includes a portion of the dental plan premiums for pediatric benefits.

If any of these applied to you, the premium shown on your Form 1095-A is probably correct. If you still think the information on your Form 1095-A is wrong, contact the Marketplace Call Center.
