

Introduction to the Consistent Poor Performer Notice

What's the purpose of this notice?

This notice lets people know that they are enrolled in a plan that has been identified as a consistent poor performer. This means that the plan has received an overall star rating of less than three stars for at least three years.

This notice encourages people to use the Annual Election Period (also known as the Medicare fall open enrollment period) as their opportunity to review other plans available in their area and consider enrolling in a plan with a higher star rating.

Who gets this notice?

Medicare mails this notice to people who are enrolled in plans that have an overall star rating of “poor” or “below average” for at least the last three years.

When do people get this notice?

This notice is mailed in mid to late-October.

What should people do next?

People with Medicare should consider their options carefully. They should:

- Review their health and prescription drug needs and use the Medicare Plan Finder to find and compare plans in their area.
- Call 1-800-MEDICARE (1-800-633-4227). TTY users can call 1-877-486-2048.
- Call their State Health Insurance Assistance Programs (SHIP) for free personalized health insurance counseling. See the “Medicare & You” handbook or call 1-800-MEDICARE for the phone number for their state.

People should reference CMS Product No. 11627 or 11627-S if they call Medicare or their SHIP with questions.

Important information about your Medicare plan options

You're getting this notice because the Medicare plan you're enrolled in has been given consistently low Star Ratings by the Centers for Medicare & Medicaid Services (CMS). <PLAN NAME> has been rated "below average" or "poor" for at least the last three years.

Most Medicare plans are rated as "excellent," "above average," or "average." You may want to compare your plan to other plans available in your area and decide if it's still right for you.

What are Medicare Star Ratings based on?

A plan can get an overall rating between 1 and 5 stars. (Some plans may be too new or not have enough information to be rated.) Medicare health and drug plan Star Ratings are based on a number of factors, including:

- Customer experience with the plan
- Plan customer service, including how well the plan handles appeals
- Member complaints, and how often Medicare found problems with the plan

What to do next

If you think you may want to switch plans, visit the Medicare Plan Finder at Medicare.gov/find-a-plan to find and compare plans in your area. It's important to consider these factors:

- How much are your premiums, deductibles, and other costs?
- Are the services or prescription drugs you need covered?
- Do your doctors, pharmacies, and other health care providers accept the plan?
- What's the plan's Star Rating?

If you decide that the plan you have now is still the right choice, you don't have to do anything.

You can switch plans from October 15 - December 7

If you decide you want to switch, you can join a new plans every year during Open Enrollment from October 15 - December 7 for coverage starting January 1. To change plans you can:

- Call the new plan directly.
- Go to Medicare.gov to enroll in the new plan.
- Call 1-800-MEDICARE (1-800-633-4227).

If you didn't change plans during Open Enrollment, you have a one-time chance to enroll in a new plan that is not rated "below average" or "poor." Call 1-800-MEDICARE to make a change. Your new coverage will start the first day of the month after you call.
